Period of Scholarship VS Period of Candidature
Period of Scholarship/Candidature

Scholarship Period (Full Time Candidates)
- PhD
  - 4 years
- MA
  - 2 years

Candidature Period (Full Time Candidates)
- PhD
  - 2 - 5 years
- MA
  - 1 - 3 years

Extension of candidature requests need to be put up only if a student has exceeded the maximum candidature period.
Period of Scholarship/Candidature

Candidature Period (Part Time Candidates)

• PhD
  • 3 - 7 years
• MA
  • 1 - 4 years

As Part-Time Candidates do not have scholarship, they do not have a scholarship period.

Extension of candidature requests need to be put up only if a student has exceeded the maximum candidature period.

Graduate Assistantship Programme (GAP)
Students on Scholarship must perform teaching/ laboratory supervision duties to fulfil the requirements of the Graduate Assistantship Programme.

The Scholar is to note that:

1. The total time spent on work done under the Graduate Assistantship Programme and any other form of paid or unpaid work, should not exceed 10 hours a week;

2. The Scholar must ensure that the total hours required under the Graduate Assistantship Programme is completed at least six months before graduation; and

3. The Scholar shall be remunerated for performing teaching/research duties and other developmental assignments at a rate in accordance to the Part-Time Appointment Scheme, for work done in excess of the Graduate Assistantship Programme.

4. The Scholar will not be paid any remuneration for the hours clocked under the Graduate Assistantship Programme.

5. The Scholar should work with the supervisor(s) on the plan to fulfil the required hours on a yearly (Academic Year) basis.

6. The duties can only be clocked for work done and deemed satisfactory by the University.

7. If the required hours are not met according to the annual plan or the quality of the work done is unsatisfactory, the faculty or school can reduce the stipend, or withhold, suspend and/or terminate the Scholarship.

8. If the total required hours are not met by the time the thesis is submitted for examination, the Scholar will have his/her transcript (both unofficial and official), student status letter, conferment letter and degree scroll (for graduating student) withheld until the fulfilment of the requirement.

Information Research and Management Workshop
Information Research and Management Workshop (3-hour Seminar)

- Compulsory Seminar
- Seminar is offered by the Library and is non-graded
- Should be completed in your first year
- Aimed at providing all postgraduate research students with a strong foundational knowledge of current resources, tools, methods and practices in undertaking research in a digital information environment
- The seminar is held monthly and the schedule is provided in the link below
- Sign Up here: https://blogs.ntu.edu.sg/lib-learning/workshops/

Complete before 1st Year of Candidature (this is tied to your renewal of scholarship)

Communications/ Writing Training Programme for PhD Students
The programme consists of three components, two compulsory and one optional. The three components of the Programme are as follows:

a. Compulsory. All PhD students must complete one of the communications courses of 39 training hours. Several courses are offered by various colleges/schools and centres, including CoHASS-Language & Communications Centre (LCC), CoHASS-WKWSCI, NIE, MSE, ASE, etc. PhD students are expected to take this course between QE and final thesis defence. The courses will be Pass/Fail courses. Students can take any one of these courses to fulfil this requirement.

b. Compulsory. All PhD students must participate in a 3-minute thesis (3MT) presentation symposium before graduation. Symposia of 3MT are co-organized by the Graduate Students Associate (GSA) and GC.

c. Optional. Should students need one-on-one tutoring/mentoring, they can schedule appointments with special tutors at LCC Communications Cube or NIE Grad Centre for individualised feedback on their writing and oral communication skills.

This applies to both full-time and part-time PhD students.

Epigeum Research Integrity Course (ERIC)

Revised Research Integrity Policy incorporates a University-level requirement for the inclusion of 3 Declaration Statements to promote good authorship practices. These declarations are to be inserted in all theses submissions commencing Jan 2019.

Statement of Originality (Students)
- Certifies that work done and reported is the student's own
- Not submitted for a higher degree to any other University or Institution

Supervisor Declaration Statement
- Currently provided as a separate insert to theses/dissertations, but now to be included within the submission
- To declare free of plagiarism, grammatical clarity, student’s own work, honesty, integrity

Authorship Attribution Statement
- To be included when published materials are inserted as thesis chapters (often the result of group work)
- Specify student’s contribution and co-authors’ contribution in the statement for each publication
- Demonstrates proper credit and accountability

Templates available for download at: http://www.soh.ntu.edu.sg/Programmes/Graduate/CurrentStudents/Pages/Administrative-Information-and-Forms.aspx

If published materials are not inserted as thesis chapters, students must acknowledge co-worker contributions in the acknowledgement section of their thesis.

Plagiarism and Academic Fraud Policy
Penalty Guidelines

• Schools in HASS apply the following penalty policies on plagiarism:
  • A student found guilty of plagiarism will receive one (1) letter grade down and depending on the seriousness of the offence and in some cases, zero mark may be awarded.
  • In the event of a second offence, a student will be given a ‘Fail’ grade for the subject in question.
  • In the event of a third offence, it may lead to expulsion from the programme.
  • Notwithstanding the standard policy listed above, HASS reserves the right to apply other penalties, or escalate the penalty, if they are deemed to be warranted in the circumstances.
Procedures

• Students are to read the write-up on academic integrity and the NTU Honour Code (http://academicintegrity.ntu.edu.sg).

• Students are required to check that all written assignments are their own work and where relevant, references need to be provided.

• Students are to ensure that they submit their written assignments/assessments with the signed declaration on the originality of their work.

• Students are required to sign and submit the “Declaration of Authorship” form for their written assignments and other assessments.

Confirmation Exercise
Aka
Qualifying Examination (QE)
There will be 3 examiners for the oral QE, i.e., two examiners and chairman of the oral QE committee.

The oral QE is mainly to present research progress that students have made since admission.

Candidates are required to submit 4 copies of their confirmation report to their supervisor. The report should contain:
- An abstract;
- A concise statement of the research topic;
- A justification for the choice of topic;
- A thorough literature review and critical summary of previous research;
- An explanation of the conceptual framework used;
- An outline of the preliminary work that has been done;
- Plans for future research work and areas to be explored;
- A tentative table of contents for the thesis;
- A workplan/timeline for the future – this should be 3 pages in length;
- A brief bibliography and a list of publications or presentations made during probationary candidature.

The report should be about 10,000 to 20,000 words with 1.5 line spacing. Include a word count on your title page.

The panel’s report and recommendation will be conveyed by the School to Office of Academic Services (OAS).

Candidates who do not pass the QE may be required to undergo the process again within a fixed period or may face termination.

Thesis Submission
Prevent delays in submission of thesis

1. Appointment of Examiners should be done at least 3 months before the submission of thesis.
2. Submit the Application for Thesis Submission Form.
3. Update the correct thesis title when submitting the thesis through the online system.
4. Ensure all pages are properly numbered.
5. Get your thesis checked for plagiarism via turnitin or iThenticate.
6. Make payment for examination fee with OneStop@SAC.
   - PhD - $214
   - MA - $160.50
7. After you have submitted your thesis, you can check this link to find out roughly when you’ll be receiving your conferment letter.
   http://www.ntu.edu.sg/STUDENTS/GRADUATE/ACADEMICSERVICES/Pages/conferment.aspx

The identity of thesis examiners and oral panel members are confidential to students
Word Limit

Unless otherwise stated, the thesis should not exceed the following number of words:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Master’s Thesis</th>
<th>PhD Thesis</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>40,000</td>
<td>80,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
